

A That's right.

Q But after April 1, 1941, you had no sharing of crops with anyone, is that right? A. That's right.

Q Mr. Stull, after April 1, 1941, or on April 1, 1941, were you in a financial position to pay $8,000 for the farm?

A I was.

Q And you had that money ready to pay? A. That's right.

Q Still have it ready to pay when title is clear?

A That's right.

Q And that money you got from where?

A From my father-in-law.

Q Mr. Stull, why didn't you settle for the farm?

A Well, it was more or less a judgment held against the one-tenth interest in the farm.

Q Were you present in Mr. Storm's office when your father-in-law or mother-in-law came in to see about the settlement?

A That's right.

Q What was said? Were you advised not to settle for it at that time?

A Well, Mr. Storm advised not to settle for it before a full deed could be given to me.

Q In other words, didn't want your father-in-law or mother-in-law to put up the money until they had a good lien?

A That's right.

Q And it was not settled for at that time?

A Not at that time.

Q And you are still in possession as owner of the farm?

A That's right.

Q Ready and willing to settle for it? A. That's right.

CROSS EXAM. BY MR. STORM:

Q You haven't paid anything on the farm, have you?

A Well, sometime prior to when he died, I think around the
